

The National Animal Ethics
Advisory Committee

Aotearoa New Zealand John Schofield 3Rs Award

APPLICATION FORM

Corresponding applicant/nominee:

Co-applicant(s)/Co-nominees:

Nominator (if applicable):

Institution:

Title of project:

Corresponding address:

Postal address:

Phone number:

Email address:

Has this application been submitted for this award previously?

Yes Year(s) submitted:

No

I / we are not aware of any impediment, past, current, or pending, that would preclude the award being made

NAEAC and ANZCCART are committed to raising awareness and disseminating information about 3Rs research and practice amongst practitioners and the public. Please indicate that you agree to allow NAEAC and ANZCCART to publicly announce receipt of the award and to disseminate information about your project if your application is successful. All publicity will be prepared in consultation with the awardee.

By applying for the award both you and your institution agree to external publicity should your application be successful.

Agree Signed by corresponding applicant/nominee: _____

Agree Signed on behalf of Institution: _____

Name: _____

Designation: _____

Date: _____

Applications or nominations (with consent and involvement of the nominee) should be sent as an electronic attachment (Word or PDF) to NAEAC via email at naeac@mpi.govt.nz.

Applications close on 30 September 2024

Provide evidence below to demonstrate how the applicant(s), group, or institution qualifies for the Award.

1) Executive summary (300-words maximum):

2) Project description (1 page maximum):

- Describe the issue(s) or problem(s) this work was seeking to address.
- Describe the method(s) used to address these.
- Continuing work underway or future work planned.
- Any other key information.

3) 3Rs evidence (1 page maximum):

Describe the impact of the work, currently and/or in the reasonably expectable future, with respect to the 3Rs principles.

The work must satisfy one or more of the following judging criteria:

1. Demonstrates great commitment to one or more of the 3Rs principles.
2. Demonstrates innovative and excellent implementation or development of one or more of the 3Rs principles.
3. Actively promotes awareness or understanding of one or more of 3Rs principles in RTT.

4) Use of award (500-word limit):

Explain how you intend to use the award to further 3Rs research or principles.

5) Curriculum vitae:

Provide curriculum vitae of the applicant(s) (maximum 4 pages per person).